DKSH Capital Markets Day 2020

Today, DKSH holds its second Capital Markets Day and provides insights into all Business Units. DKSH is well positioned to navigate through COVID-19 challenges and has set the stage for future growth – capitalizing on positive, long-term market trends, its resilient business model as well as its proven strategy.

Zurich, Switzerland, September 21, 2020 – DKSH’s leadership team today provides an update on strategy implementation and focus areas at its virtual Capital Markets Day. The company continues to pursue its proven Group strategy and is well positioned to benefit from fast-growing and resilient markets, favorable industry trends and M&A potential. These three elements combined offer the potential for DKSH to grow “GDP plus” post COVID-19.

To unlock this potential, each Business Unit will follow a targeted strategy:

- Healthcare: Expand strong market position and drive into higher value segments and services
- Consumer Goods: Capitalize on leadership with the FMCG transformation well on track
- Performance Materials: Expand attractive specialty chemicals and ingredients distribution business
- Technology: Build resilience and deliver growth to exceed pre-COVID-19 levels in the mid-term

DKSH CEO Stefan P. Butz said: “Over the last years, we have strengthened our strategic focus, business model and leadership. As of today, we have mastered the COVID-19 challenges well and continued to deliver solid results. We are confident to capitalize on the positive, long-term market and industry trends. Together with our leadership team, I am looking forward to providing more insights today about our way forward.”
