DKSH strengthens North American presence with relocation of main office and innovation center

DKSH, a leading Market Expansion Services provider, recently relocated to Mount Olive, New Jersey, to ensure the further growth of its Business Unit Performance Materials in the region.

New Jersey, USA, March 23, 2018 – DKSH North America and its Business Unit Performance Materials, a leading ingredients and specialty chemicals distributor and provider of Market Expansion Services, has relocated its North American operations from Mount Arlington to larger, more modern premises in Mount Olive, New Jersey.

The new four thousand square feet premises houses DKSH's Business Lines Personal Care Industry and Specialty Chemicals Industry as well as its state-of-the-art innovation center for the development of trend-setting personal care formulations.

DKSH North America was established in 1985 and was previously located in Connecticut and Maryland. The company provides a broad portfolio of ingredients and specialty chemicals as well as service offerings, including regulatory support and consulting, sourcing, innovation and formulation development and market intelligence solutions.

Present at the inauguration of the new office were Thomas Sul, Co-Head Business Unit Performance Materials and Cesar Saez, Vice President Global Personal Care Industry, as well as special guests Hans Kaeser, legal counselor and David and Steve Lowenstein of Jos H. Lowenstein & Sons, key client of DKSH.

Kai Martin and Lance Croft, Co-Heads DKSH North America, both agreed: "We are pleased to relocate our North American operations to an improved, more modern working environment. Our state-of-the-art facilities will allow us to better serve our clients and customers and to increase our presence in the region."

Steve Lowenstein, Chairman, Jos. H. Lowenstein & Sons, Inc., commented about the opening ceremony: "It was a delightful gathering. It is such a beautiful and cheerful new office and laboratory setting. It was a great pleasure to join you and we felt honored to be included in your milestone event for DKSH."
