

Delia Sun

Chinese, 1978

- Head Supply Chain Management

Delia Sun has been Head Supply Chain Management since December 2022. Delia has a demonstrated track record of being a passionate leader and has previously led transformations in her career. She has close to 25 years of experience in supply chain and logistics across many best-in-class companies in different industries.

Prior to DKSH, Delia was VP, APAC Procurement at Tapestry and has driven the transformation of various functions including fulfilment management and logistics for Distribution Centers in Asia. Delia's previous experience in Nike and Unilever China also included establishing innovative supply chain solutions internally to improve efficiency and externally for clients, integrated business planning, import/export fulfilment management and logistics, while reshaping the supply chain strategy and account operations.

Delia Sun holds a Bachelor's degree in English and International Trade from the Shanghai Maritime University in China.